

MINI RODINI

ANIMAL WELFARE POLICY

We are a vegetarian company that considers the protection of our animal kingdom to be of paramount concern. There are many risks involved when extracting fibers from animals. The welfare of the animals may not always be secured, and the chemicals used in the treatment can be dangerous for the animal, the environment and the workers who handle them. For this reason, we have chosen not to use the following animal fibers in our products:

- Leather
- Fur
- Conventional wool
- Exotic skins
- Down
- Angora wool
- Suede
- Feathers
- Conventional silk

RESPONSIBLE WOOL

Wool is the only animal fiber that we allow in our products. The wool must always be from certified responsible farming. Certifications we accept is GOTS and RWS.

As will be controlled in the wool certification, Mini Rodini requires wool suppliers to adopt industry best practice when caring for the animals, based on the internationally recognised Five Freedoms:

1. freedom from hunger and thirst
2. freedom from discomfort
3. freedom from pain, injury and disease
4. freedom to express normal behaviour
5. freedom from fear and distress

Mini Rodini bans the practice of mulesing, which is forbidden in RWS and GOTS certifications.
